The St. Albert Chamber of Commerce conducted a Christmas "Light Up" campaign. The committee, comprised of Mr. Eugene Roussel of the Bank of Montreal, Mr. Jack Manarey of Spartan Car Sales and Mr. Don Perry of Don Perry Ltd.

This committee and the Chamber of Commerce wish to express their thanks and gratitude to numerous St. Albert residents who contributed their co-operation and assistance in the success of this campaign.

First, the three judges, who for obvious reasons we must leave nameless, not because of any shortcomings on their part, but because of those worthy of honourable mention for their Christmas decorations who were very deserving of commendation and praise, but too numerous to mention.

Secondly, our very capable and efficient group of men comprising St. Albert's Public Works crew under the able guidance of Mr. Francois Girardi and his willing workers, comprising the following men worthy of our thanks and gratitude: Mr. Frank Ricard, John Dubois, James Richardson, L. We, of the Chamber of Commerce, are very grateful for this assistance in our "Light Up" campaign. The St. Albert "Happy Hour Club" in the basement of Mrs. J.D. McLaren, Grandville Place, Grandin Park

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself: that where I am there ye may be also.

John 14:2, 3.

One of the Bible Texts written on the wall in the basement.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB

Have you ever heard of a Happy Hour Club? Have you wondered what it was all about? Two of these clubs are now active in St. Albert, one in Grandin Park at 15 Grandville Place on Thursday afternoons at 4:15, and another in Sturgeon Heights on Wednesdays at 4:30.

About thirty years ago an interdenominational organization named the Canadian Sunday School Mission, was set up to provide correspondence lessons for children in remote areas. A similar group, the Child for Christ Crusade, endeavoured to reach children in towns and cities who did not attend Sunday School. Children were invited to a home after school where instructors gave Bible lessons. These meetings were called "Happy Hours". In the Edmonton area, for the past ten years, these Happy Hours have been sponsored by the Canadian Sunday School Mission.

Children are exposed to evil temptation at an early age in our modern world. They need preparation to resist it. What better time can Christian character be formed than in the childhood year before evil habits become established? Instruction in Christian doctrine, memorization of helpful Bible verses, and establishment of good habits are emphasized by the Happy Hour instructors.

Since teachers volunteer their services instructional materials are simple (the Bible with flannelgraph illustrations), and meetings are held in homes, no solicitation for funds is necessary. Those who are conducting the Happy Hours in St. Albert, however, would like to solicit the prayers of all Christians in the area. Please remember the Happy Hour Clubs in your daily devotions. At present an aggregate of over ninety children are attending and any great increase would entail the need of more homes in which to meet.

For further information you may phone Mrs. Harold Peacock at 599-6027, or Mrs. J.D. McLaren at 599-7364, or Mrs. J. Skitt at 599-6526. If any adults wish to observe a meeting, visitors are always welcome.
